 - 3.12.1. You shall develop and employ in Your domain name registration business all reasonably necessary technology and technical, physical, and administrative measures to ensure that Your connection to the Registry System is secure and that all data exchanged between Your system and the Registry System shall be protected to avoid unintended disclosure of information. You shall employ the reasonable measures to prevent Your access to the Registry System granted hereunder from being used to: (i) access the Registry System without authorisation and/or to access, modify, acquire, or misuse the Registry System or data contained therein; (ii) transmit mass unsolicited, commercial advertising or solicitations to entities or individuals other than Your own existing customers; or (iii) enable high volume, automated, electronic processes that send queries or data to the systems of the Registry, any other registry operated under an agreement with ICANN, or any ICANN accredited registrar, except as reasonably necessary to register domain names or modify existing registrations. In addition, we may require other reasonable security provisions to ensure that that the Registry System is secure and stable.
 - 3.12.2. You shall not provide identical registrar generated authorisation <authinfo> codes for Registered Names registered by different Registrants with the same registrar. We, in our sole discretion, may choose to modify <authinfo> codes for a given Registered Name and shall notify the sponsoring Registrar of such modifications by EPP poll event within 300 seconds of modification. Documentation of these mechanisms shall be made available to You by us. You shall provide the Registrant with timely access to the authorisation code, along with the ability to modify the authorisation code. You shall respond to any inquiry by a Registrant regarding access to and/or modification of an authorisation within five (5) calendar days.
- 3.13. Resolution of Technical Problems. You shall employ employees, contractors, and/or agents with sufficient technical training and experience to respond to and fix all technical problems concerning the use of the EPP, the APIs and the systems of the Registry in conjunction with Your systems. In the event of significant degradation of the Registry System or other emergency, we may, in our sole discretion, temporarily suspend or restrict Registrar's access to the Registry System. Such temporary suspensions shall be applied in a non-arbitrary manner and shall apply fairly to any Registrar similarly situated, including Resellers. We will provide You with any advance notice via email, and/or via telephone of any temporary suspension or restriction, except where we are prevented from doing so due to circumstances outside of our control.

- 3.14. Time. In the event of any dispute concerning the time of a domain name registration (entry of a domain name registration into the Registry Database) the time shown in the Registry records shall prevail.
- 3.15. Transfer of registration ownership. You agree to implement transfers of the Registered Name registrations from another Registrar and vice versa pursuant to the ICANN Inter-Registrar Transfer Policy.
- 3.16. Renewal and deletion of Registered Names.
 - 3.16.1. Renewal. A renewal of a Registration Period in the Registry System may be made at any time, for a period of one (1) to ten (10) years, provided that in no event shall the total Registration Period for the Registered Name exceed (10) years, at any given time. Renewal for longer period shall automatically be reduced to 10 years, regardless of the actual period paid for or requested. Registrars agree to present Registrants with the renewal price for Premium Names upon registration.
 - 3.16.2. Renewal Request. To renew the Registration Period of a Registered Name prior to its expiry, a Registrant must request or enable its Registrar to submit a renewal request to us. Once validated and approved by us, we will debit the Registrar Account for the applicable Renewal Fees. If a Registrant selects a renewal period of more than 1 year or is charged by its Registrar on the basis of a renewal period of more than 1 year, the Registrar must request a renewal period that corresponds to the renewal period selected by the Registrant or charged for by the Registrar to the Registrant, and pay us the applicable Renewal Fee for the full maximum renewal period selected or paid for by the Registrant.
 - 3.16.3. Auto Renewal. Subject to Sections 3.16.4 through 3.17 below, upon the expiry of its Registration Period, each Registered Name is automatically renewed by us for one (1) year (regardless of the original Registration Period), and we will debit the Your balance in the Registrar Account for the applicable Fees for such additional year.
 - 3.16.4. Deletion of Renewed Registered Names. Following the automatic renewal of a Registered Name pursuant to Section 3.16.3, there is a forty-five (45) calendar day period in which the Registrar of record can request that we delete the Registered Name, notwithstanding the auto-renewal (the “Auto Renew Grace Period”). Subject to Section 3.16.5, such request must be made in good faith and at the request of the Registrant, with the exception of only clear instances of non-payment by such Registrant of the Renewal Fee. In such case, the Registrar of record shall be entitled to delete or suspend the Registered Name during the Auto Renew Grace Period. Any such suspension shall only be in place during the Auto Renew Grace Period, and shall be lifted at the end of this period. If the request to delete the Registered Name is validated and approved by us, we will then delete the Registered Name and credit the Registrar of record’s Registrar Account with the amount previously debited for the auto-renewal. We will notify the Registrar of record of the deletion of the Registered Name. The Registrar of record must delete a Registered Name during the Auto Renew Grace Period if requested by the Registrant. Such Registered Name will then be made available to others for registration, in accordance with the Registry Policies.
 - 3.16.5. Redemption of Deleted Registered Name. Once a Registered Name has been deleted either pursuant to Sections 3.16.4 or 3.17, there is then a 30-day period in which the Registrant can redeem the Registered Name in order for the Registered Name to be re-registered. In order to redeem a Registered Name that has been deleted, a Registrant must ask its Registrar to submit a request to us to redeem the deleted Registered Name. The relevant Registrar will send the redemption request to us via EPP. Once the redemption request is validated and approved by us, we will redeem the Registered Name and debit such Registrar’s balance in its Registrar Account for the Redemption Fee. The Registered Name will be re-registered as of its original expiry date. We will notify Registrar via EPP poll message that the deleted Registered Name has been redeemed.
- 3.17. Insufficient Registrar Funds. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement and/or unless otherwise agreed between the Parties, if You have insufficient funds to pay the Renewal Fee of the auto-renewal of a Registered Name at the time it expires, the Registered Name will not be renewed.. Instead, it will automatically be deleted, and a notice of such deletion will be automatically sent to You.
- 3.18. Registrar Personnel. You shall ensure all of Your Resellers, distributors and/or Affiliates, and their respective owners, directors, managers, officers, employees, contractors, agents, successors and assignees comply with all of the terms, conditions, covenants and agreements set forth or referenced in this Agreement. You shall have primary responsibility and liability to us for all failures of any such persons to comply as if the failure was made by You.

- 3.19. Resellers. You may at Your discretion from time to time, designate one (1) or more resellers that will be permitted to provide Registrar services consistent with those permitted of You under this Agreement (each a “Reseller”). You shall enter into a paper or electronic agreement with each of Your Resellers (a “Reseller Agreement”) to ensure Your and their compliance with this Agreement. All Reseller Agreements shall expressly require that the Reseller comply with all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and all of Registrar’s covenants, obligations, representations and warranties as set forth in this Agreement. You shall be primarily liable for all acts and omissions of Your Resellers as if the same were made by You directly, and our obligations under this Agreement shall not be increased due to Your appointment of any Resellers. Further, in each Reseller Agreement with a Reseller, You shall require such Reseller to indemnify, defend and hold us harmless (by express reference or by reference to all Registry operators) and its Affiliates and subsidiaries, as well as their respective owners, directors, managers, officers, employees, representatives, agents, service providers and contractors from and against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses of any kind, including without limitation legal fees and expenses (including on appeal), arising out of or relating to (a) any claim or alleged claim relating to any product or service of such Reseller; (b) any claim or alleged claim relating to any agreement with any Registrant that registers a Registered Name through Reseller; (c) any claim or alleged claim relating to the Reseller’s domain name registration business or other activities, including, but not limited to, the Reseller’s advertising, domain name application process, systems and other processes, fees charged, billing practices and customer service; and/or (d) any breach by the Reseller of any of the terms, conditions, covenants, obligations, agreements, representations or warranties set forth herein. Each Reseller Agreement shall further require that the Reseller shall not enter into any settlement or compromise of any such indemnifiable claim without our prior written consent. This indemnification obligation must be made to survive any termination or expiration of the Reseller Agreement and/or this Agreement. We reserve the right upon written notice to require Registrar to terminate any Reseller’s right to provide registrar services with respect to the TLDs if such Reseller fails to comply with any terms of this Agreement (a “Reseller Breach”) and to take any measures we deem necessary to prevent such Reseller from accessing the Registry System. Unless the nature of the Reseller Breach is such that it is incapable of being cured or the same breach has been committed previously by the same Reseller, our notice shall provide a ten (10) calendar day cure period.
- 3.20. Communication with Registrants. You shall provide Your Registrants with (i) the Registry Policies, including but not limited to the AUP, and (ii) important information about the use of the Registry TLD, as You may be reasonably instructed by us from time to time. In the event we receive any Personal Data relating to a Registrant, we shall never use such Personal Data, to contact the Registrant with a communication intended or designed to induce such Registrant to change Registrars, or for the purpose of selling non-Registry services to our Registrant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent us, or our Affiliates, from offering or selling products and services to any Registrants who are known to us through existing customer relationships.
- 3.21. Trademark Claims Service. In addition to Sections 3.3 and 3.4, You shall comply with all requirements of the Trademark Clearinghouse and notify the Registrants of any domain name that is registered in the Trademark Clearinghouse by presenting the Trademark Claims Notice form as described below:
- 3.21.1. You must only query the Claims Notice Information Service for domain names that have been applied for by a potential domain name Registrant, and may not query the Claims Notice Information Service for any other purpose;
- 3.21.2. You must, after acquiring Trademark Claims Notice information from the Claims Notice Information Service, clearly and conspicuously display the Trademark Claims Notice, containing the Trademark Claims Notice Information, to the potential domain name Registrant and inquire as to whether the potential domain name Registrant wishes to continue with the registration. Except during pre-registration, the Trademark Claims Notice must be provided by You at the time of potential registration in real time, without cost to the prospective domain name Registrant, and must be in the form specified in the Trademark Claims Notice;
- 3.21.3. The Trademark Claims Notice requires an affirmative confirmation by the potential domain name Registrant to continue with the registration (i.e. acceptance box should not be pre-checked). The Trademark Claims Notice must be provided by You to the potential domain name Registrant in English and should be provided by You to the potential domain name registration in the language of the Registration Agreement; and
- 3.22. Uniform Rapid Suspension (URS). In Your Registration Agreement(s) and on Your website, You shall provide a link to information regarding ICANN’s URS which can be found at: <http://newgtlds.icann.org/en/applicants/urs>. In the event where a URS complainant has prevailed, we are obliged to offer the option for such URS complainant to extend a

URS suspended domain name's registration for an additional year and You are obliged to pay the Renewal Fee for such domain name extension.

4. FEES

- 4.1. Registry Credit Policy. You agree to comply with all our payment and credit policy (the “Registry Credit Policy”) as provided to You and/or published on the Registry Website. We reserve the right to revise this policy from time to time at our sole discretion, provided that we shall provide at least sixty (60) calendar days’ prior written notice. The terms used in this Section 4 shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Registry Credit Policy.
- 4.2. Amount of Fees. You agree to pay us the Fees set forth in the Fee Schedule attached to this Agreement and as provided to You by the Registry from time to time for the Registry Services made available by us for Registry TLD domain names (the “Fees”). We reserve the right to revise the Fees from time to time at our sole discretion, provided that we shall provide at least thirty (30) days’ notice to You prior to any change in Fees save for any increases in the Renewal Fee, in which case we shall provide at least one hundred eighty (180) calendar days’ notice to You. In any event, we do not intend to effectuate more than two (2) price changes per calendar year. With respect to renewal of the Registered Names: (a) we shall provide thirty (30) calendar days’ notice of any Fees increase if the resulting fee is less than or equal to (i) the initial fee charged for registrations in the TLD (within the first twelve (12) months of the Registry TLD offering), or (ii) for subsequent periods (after the first twelve (12) months of the Registry TLD offering), a fee for which we provided a notice within the twelve (12) month period preceding the effective date of the proposed fee increase, and (b) we do not need to provide notice of any fee increase for the imposition of the “Variable Registry-Level Fees” included in the Registry Agreement. The provisions of Section 10.3 shall apply to the notices given under this Section 4.2.
- 4.3. Payment Terms. We will, upon request from a Registrar and at our sole discretion, determine whether the Post-Pay payment terms shall be extended. We will evaluate such requests and make the decision based on, amongst other things, such Registrar’s size, credit rating and payment history.
- 4.3.1. Credit Limit. If You are approved for Post-Pay payment terms, we will, at our sole discretion, determine Your credit threshold and credit limit. In addition, we may require and set the terms for a credit facility or payment security.
- 4.3.2. Registrar Account. Unless as otherwise provided or required by any separate written agreement by the Parties, on the Effective Date, You shall deposit funds in a cash advance account (the “Registrar Account”) the amounts of which are set out in the Registry Credit Policy. We shall, at our sole discretion, require and set the minimum balance requirement for the Registrar Account, as well as require a further advance and any other payment security if we consider necessary at our absolute discretion.
- 4.4. Payment of Fees. All Fees are due (i) immediately upon receipt of applications for Sunrise (as defined in the Sunrise Registration Policy), General Availability (as defined in the Registry General Availability Policy), initial and renewal registrations, registrations associated with transfers of sponsorship, or upon provision of other services provided by us to You; and (ii) in accordance with the time frames specified in the Registry Launch Plan and Policy available at the Registry Website. For Pre-Pay Registrars, payment from the Registrar Account shall be made via draw down of the deposit account. For Post-Pay Registrars, payment is due net 30 calendar days from receipt of invoice. In both cases, we shall provide monthly invoice statements to You, which shall be sent via email to the contact information provided by You in this Agreement, or to such other address as specified by You in writing. You hereby expressly consent to our collection of the Fees set out in the Fee Schedule attached to this Agreement, including but not limited to the “Variable Registry Level Fees” included in the Registry Agreement.
- 4.5. Taxes. Each Party shall be responsible for its own tax liabilities in its respective territory, including any company or corporate tax, national taxes federal or state and all such payments hereunder shall be made without any deduction other than withholding tax (if applicable). In the event that either Party is obliged to make a payment for withholding tax, then the Party who is responsible shall pay the amount withheld promptly to the appropriate authority and shall provide the other Party with a verified original document (or other reasonable evidence) certifying that the amounts withheld have or will be accounted for to the appropriate authority. All amounts shown as payable under this Agreement are shown before value added tax or any other similar sales taxes which will be charged in addition to these amounts to the extent that it is applicable to do so. Any value added tax or any other similar sales taxes so charged shall be paid to the other Party on production of a valid value added tax or any other similar sales taxes invoice (or any such equivalent).
- 4.6. Non-Payment of Fees. In the event You have insufficient funds deposited or available through Your Registrar Account with us and/or You fail to pay any invoice on time in accordance with this Agreement, we may do any or all of the following:

- 4.6.1. stop accepting new initial or renewal registrations, or registrations associated with transfers of sponsorship, from Registrar;
- 4.6.2. give written notice of termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.2; and
- 4.6.3. pursue any other remedy under this Agreement or available at law.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 5.1. In consideration of the disclosure to it of the other Party's Confidential Information, each Party, in its capacity as the receiving party, will:
 - 5.1.1. keep such Confidential Information strictly secret and confidential and not disclose it or permit it to be made available to anyone, except as provided for in Sections 5.2 and 5.5, and ensure that such Confidential Information is protected with security measures and a degree of care (and in any case no less than a reasonable degree of care) that it would apply to its own confidential information; and
 - 5.1.2. use such Confidential Information only for the purpose set out in this Agreement.
- 5.2. Each Party agrees, in its capacity as disclosing party, that the other party in its capacity as receiving party may disclose the disclosing party's Confidential Information:
 - 5.2.1. to its Affiliates and to its Affiliates' officers, directors, employees and professional advisers who need to know the Confidential Information to the extent necessary for the purpose set out in this Agreement; or
 - 5.2.2. with the disclosing party's prior written consent.
- 5.3. The receiving party will ensure that any such person to whom it passes any such Confidential Information, or any person who receives it on the receiving party's behalf (unless disclosed under Section 5.5) is fully aware in advance of the receiving party's obligations under this Agreement, and that the person is contractually or otherwise bound by appropriate obligations of confidence before access to such Confidential Information is granted.
- 5.4. Any breach of confidentiality by such employees, Affiliates or agents or other officers (whether during or after their employment with the receiving party) will be regarded as a breach by the receiving party and the receiving party acknowledges that it will be responsible for any breach of this Agreement by any person to whom it is permitted to disclose Confidential Information pursuant to this Section 5.4.
- 5.5. Notwithstanding Section 5.2, where (i) requested or required by any court of competent jurisdiction or any competent judicial, governmental, supervisory or regulatory body; (ii) required by the rules of any stock exchange on which the receiving party's shares or other securities are listed; or (iii) required by the laws or regulations of any country with jurisdiction over the receiving party's affairs, the receiving party may disclose the Confidential Information to the extent required, provided that it immediately gives the other party notice of the circumstances and the opportunity, if it is permitted and such exists, to seek, at the other Party's own cost, to prevent or limit such disclosure.
- 5.6. If it is permitted, the receiving party agrees to notify the disclosing party upon becoming aware that any part of the disclosing party's Confidential Information has been disclosed in breach of this Agreement.
- 5.7. If requested in writing by the disclosing party, the receiving party will:
 - 5.7.1. promptly return to the disclosing party all of the disclosing party's Confidential Information (in the form provided to the receiving party) which is in the receiving party's or its Group's possession or control;
 - 5.7.2. to the extent possible, destroy or permanently erase (if in electronic format), all copies of such Confidential Information, or any part thereof, made by the receiving party or its Group and commit not to retrieve or use Confidential Information not destroyed or erased other than as required by law, audit or for compliance purposes; and
 - 5.7.3. use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that anyone to whom the receiving party or its Group has disclosed any such Confidential Information in accordance with Section 5.2 or Section 5.5 returns, destroys or permanently erases (if in electronic format) such Confidential Information and any copies thereof made by them and all parts thereof, in each case, save to the extent that the receiving party or its Group or such recipients are required to retain any such Confidential Information by any applicable law, rule or regulation or by any competent judicial, governmental, supervisory or regulatory body and not commits to retrieve or use such Confidential Information other than as required by law, audit or for compliance purposes.

- 5.8. If requested by the disclosing party, the receiving party will provide to the disclosing party a certificate, in writing, signed by a director of the receiving party declaring that it has complied with its obligations under Section 5.7.
- 5.9. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in Section 5 shall be interpreted to diminish our rights with respect to the data referenced to in this Agreement and our obligations with respect to Personal Data shall be governed only by Sections 2.9 and 3.4; provided, however, that we agree not to disclose the names of active Registrants sponsored by You to any other Registrar unless and to the extent such disclosure is required to facilitate the transfer of Registered Names or pursuant to any governmental or regulatory requirement.

6. INDEMNITIES AND LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

- 6.1. You will indemnify us, and keep us indemnified on demand, in respect of all liabilities, losses or costs of any kind or nature whatsoever that may be incurred by us as a direct or indirect result of any failure by You or Your Registrants to perform any of the obligations under this Agreement, claims made in relation to Your Registration Agreement(s), Registry TLD or claims made in relation to any false information or declaration made either to us or to any third party. You acknowledge that this indemnity extends to our legal and administrative costs and expenses incurred in respect of taking any legal or investigatory action against You, or instructing any debt collection agency, to recover monies owed by You to us.
- 6.2. To the extent permitted by law, You will indemnify, protect and hold us harmless from and against all losses, liabilities, judgements, suits, actions, proceedings, claims, damages and/or costs resulting from or arising out of any act or omission by any Registrant and/or any person obtaining access to Your account, whether or not You authorised such access.
- 6.3. Without prejudice to any other terms of this Agreement, we will have no liability to You in relation to any loss that You suffer as a result of any delay or defect in or failure of the whole or any part of our Registry Website, email system or any other communication platform as we may advise You from time to time, software or any systems or network links or any other means of communication. We will have no liability to You, whether in contract or in tort (including negligence) in the event that any computer viruses, worms, software bombs or similar items are introduced into Your computer hardware or software, provided that we have taken reasonable steps to prevent any such introduction.
- 6.4. Unless a Party is prohibited from excluding such liability by law (for example, for losses relating to death or personal injury or caused by our fraud), and excluding for either party's breach of its obligations of confidentiality hereunder, neither Party shall be liable for any direct, indirect, special, incidental, punitive or consequential damages (including, without limitation, loss of business, loss of profits, failure to avoid a loss, loss of data, loss or corruption of data, loss of goodwill or reputation) caused by any act or omission of such Party under this Agreement. The total liability of the Parties to the other shall not exceed the amount paid by the Registrar for the previous twelve (12) months under this Agreement or USD$500,000, whichever is greater.

7. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

We reserve the right at our sole discretion to deny, cancel or transfer any registration or transaction, or place any domain name(s) on registry lock, hold or similar status, that we deem necessary in order: (i) to protect the integrity and stability of the Registry; (ii) to comply with applicable laws, government rules or requirements, requests of law enforcement, or dispute resolution process; (iii) to avoid any liability, civil or criminal, on the part of the Registry, as well as its Group and its Affiliates, subsidiaries, officers, directors and employees; (iv) for violation of this Agreement, including but not limited to, the Schedule(s) and the Registry Policies; (v) for the non-payment of the Fees under this Agreement and any other Registry Policy, including but not limited to the Registry Credit Policy; (vi) where the domain name use is abusive or violates the Registry's AUP, or a third party's rights or acceptable use policies, including but not limited to the infringement of any copyright or trademark; or (vi) to correct mistakes made by us or any Registrar in connection with a domain name registration. - 10.1. Assignment. We may assign, at our sole discretion, the rights and obligations of this Agreement to a third-party, in whole or in part, provided that any assignee agrees to abide by the terms of this Agreement. Such assignment will come into effect 10 Business Days following the day You are deemed to have received notice of the assignment in accordance with Section 10.3. Your rights and obligations to us under this Agreement are personal to You. This means that You may not assign the benefit and burden of this Agreement, whether in whole or in part, to any third-party without our prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld).
- 10.2. Force Majeure. Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay (other than failure to make payment) caused by events beyond its control (a "Force Majeure Event"), including, without limitation, acts of God, fire, flood, earthquake, sabotage, failures or delays in transportation or communications, labour disputes, accidents, shortages of labour, fuel, raw materials or equipment, terrorist act, failures or delays of third party providers and other actions or inactions of third-parties or technical failures. If we determine that a Force Majeure Event exists and to the extent such occurrence interferes with either Party's performance of this Agreement, such Party shall be excused from performance of its obligations under this Agreement (other than payment obligations) during the first six (6) months of such interference provided that such Party uses best efforts to avoid or remove such causes of non-performance as soon as possible.
- 10.3. Notices and Communications. Except as otherwise provided herein, any notice or other communication required or permitted to be delivered to any Party under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed properly delivered, given and received if delivered by post, by hand or by e-mail to the address set forth in this Agreement and in accordance with this Section 10.3. We may communicate with You by telephone, letter or email or by posting a message on the Registry Website. Each Party will use the address, phone number, or email address specified in this Agreement or such other address or number as one Party may subsequently notify to the other Party. Unless You expressly specify otherwise, You agree that we may send the following notices to You by email: (i) notice of an amendment to the way in which we provide our service to You; and (ii) notice of an amendment to the terms of this Agreement and/or the Registry Policies (each a "Message"). We will not send You a paper copy of a Message sent to You by email. Sending a Message to You by email fully complies with all our obligations under the Agreement.
- 10.4. Any correspondence, documents, written notices, legal notices, confirmations or Messages will be deemed to have been properly given:
- 10.4.1. if sent by post to the address last notified by a Party, on the next Business Day after being deposited in the post;

- 10.6. Although email, the internet and other forms of electronic communication are often a reliable way to communicate, no electronic communication is entirely reliable or always available. You acknowledge and accept that a failure or delay by You to receive any communication from us sent by email, posted on the Registry Website or sent by other means whether due to mechanical, software, computer, telecommunications or other electronic systems failure, does not in any way invalidate or otherwise prejudice that communication or any transaction to which it relates. We will not be liable to You for any loss or damage, howsoever caused, arising directly or indirectly out of a failure or delay by You or us to receive an email or other electronic communication or view a communication posted on the Registry Website. Further, You understand and accept that emails and other electronic communications we send to You may not be encrypted and therefore may not be secure. You acknowledge the inherent risk that communications by electronic means may not reach their intended destination or may do so later than intended for reasons outside our control. You accept this risk and agree that a failure or delay by us to receive any communication from You sent electronically, whether due to mechanical, software, computer, telecommunications or other electronic systems failure, does not in any way invalidate or otherwise prejudice that communication or any transaction to which it relates.
- 10.7. Amendments. We may amend this Agreement and any arrangements made hereunder at any time by written notice to You. You will be deemed to accept and agree to the amendment unless You notify us to the contrary within thirty

(30) calendar days of the date of our amendment notice. If You do object to the amendment, the amendment will not be binding on You and the provisions of Section 9.2 will apply. Any amended agreement will supersede any previous agreement between us on the same subject matter and will govern any Registry TLD registered by You after the date the new edition comes into effect.

- 10.8. Waiver. No failure or delay in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement will operate as a waiver thereof nor will any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege preclude any further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privileges under this Agreement.
- 10.9. Third party rights. Except as expressly provided elsewhere in this Agreement, a person who is not a Party to this Agreement shall not have any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Agreement.
- 10.10. Third party beneficiaries. The Parties agree that this Agreement shall not be construed to create any obligation by either Party to any non-party to this Agreement, including any Registrants or ICANN.
- 10.11. No partnership or agency. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between any of the Parties, constitute any party the agent of another party, or authorise any Party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of any other Party. Each Party confirms it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.
- 10.12. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement which shall remain in full force and effect. The Parties agree, in the circumstances referred to above, to attempt to substitute for any invalid or unenforceable provision a valid or enforceable provision which achieves to the greatest extent possible the same effect as would have been achieved by the invalid or unenforceable provision.
- 10.13. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes and extinguishes all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter. Each Party agrees that it shall have no remedies in respect of any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in this Agreement. Each Party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation or negligent misstatement based on any statement in this Agreement.
- 10.14. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed shall constitute a duplicate original, but all the counterparts shall together constitute the one agreement. Transmission of the executed signature page of a counterpart of this Agreement by email (in PDF, JPEG or other agreed format) shall take effect as delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement. If either method of delivery is adopted, without prejudice to the validity of the agreement thus made, each Party shall provide the others with the original of such counterpart as soon as reasonably possible thereafter.
- 10.15. Governing law. This Agreement is in all respects governed by English law and the courts of England and Wales will have non-exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes that may arise in relation thereto. Nothing in this Section will prevent us from bringing proceedings against You in any other jurisdiction. If You are situated outside of England and Wales, process by which any proceedings in England are begun may be served on You by being delivered to the address provided by You when You entered into this Agreement or to any new address subsequently notified to us. Nothing in this Section affects our right to serve process in another manner permitted by law and/or in accordance with the Sunrise Dispute Resolution Policy or the Registry Dispute Resolution Policy (as applicable).
